

Marine Cryptologic Support Battalion Family Readiness Officer Welcome Aboard Letter

Dear Marine,

On behalf of the Command Team, welcome to Marine Cryptologic Support Battalion (MCSB).

I hope this finds you happy, healthy, and excited for your assignment to MCSB. I know we are excited to see you are inbound and would like to reach out to you and ensure you have all required information to hit the ground running. Attached to the Battalion Welcome Aboard Letter, is the most recent Unit, Personal, and Family Readiness Program (UPFRP) newsletter as well as our UPFRP Year at a Glance which will provide you with all currently planned Single Marine Program (SMP) and UPFRP events. If you are interested in attending any of the events prior to your official check-in please send an email to either the Command Team Advisor (CTA) or myself and we will provide you with any details as well as an escort for the event.

The mission of the MCSB UPFRP exists to expand and enhance the ability of the individual Marine and their family members to balance the demands of a mission, life, and career events successfully.

The Battalion Commander's Intent in reference to the UPFRP is identified below.

- Purpose: Develop a comprehensive, annual plan of education, training, and social opportunities for Calendar Year 2014 to meet the goals and objectives that are outlined in the MCSB UPFRP Charter.
- Method: Maintain a constant and distinct focus on critical family readiness considerations and incorporate relevant opportunities into MCSB planning efforts.
- End state: Execute an exemplary UPFRP that effectively and efficiently meets members' needs and increases operational readiness across the battalion.
